Our Parish Identity

We are the body of Christ. His Spirit is with us.

Our Parish Vision

We desire to shine as one in Christ that God's will be done.

A Reading from the Book of Job
Chapter 23, verse 1-9, 16-17

Then Job answered:

*'Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.
O that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!
I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.
I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.
Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.
There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.
'If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;
on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.
God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;
If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!*

Hear the word of the Lord / Thanks be to God

Psalm 22. 1-15.

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me:
why are you so far from helping me
and from the words of my groaning?

My God, I cry to you by day, but you do not answer:
and by night also I take no rest.

But you continue holy:
you that are the praise of Israel.

In you our forebears trusted:
they trusted, and you delivered them;

To you they cried and they were saved:
they put their trust in you and were not confounded.
But as for me, I am a worm and no man:
the scorn of all and despised by the people.

Those that see me laugh me to scorn:
they shoot out their lips at me
and wag their heads, saying,
'He trusted in the Lord—let him deliver him:
let him deliver him, if he delights in him.'

But you are he that took me out of the womb:
that brought me to lie at peace on my mother's breast.
On you have I been cast since my birth:
you are my God, even from my mother's womb.

O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand:
and there is none to help.
Many oxen surround me:
fat bulls of Bashan close me in on every side.

They gape wide their mouths at me:
like lions that roar and rend.
I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are out of joint:
my heart within my breast is like melting wax.

My mouth is dried up like a potsherd:
and my tongue clings to my gums.

Glory to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit
as in the beginning, so now and forever. Amen

A Reading from the Book of Hebrews

Chapter 4, verses 12 to 16;

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ

according to St Mark,

Chapter 10, verses 17–31.

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother."' He said to him, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven;

then come, follow me. When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

For the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

MARKET DAY Can you help?

Do you have a missionary heart, or organisational skills, or a bit of “Step toe and Son” in your blood, then you are the person we need to help organise Market Day.

After many years of generous and hard work Betty and Peter Hancock feel it is time to step back from being the main organisers of Market Day.

Please prayerfully pray if God is calling you to this ministry, support will always be there.

Reverend Ann

SAMARITANS - We need to supply 50 we still have 22 to go!

Once again Terrigal Parish is supporting the ALI Christmas Function – a gift of a coffee mug filled with lollies would be appreciated. If you can wrap the mug and sweets in green or red cellophane paper it would be appreciated. They can be left at the office or outside the church.

Thanks, Anna Holt

Please pray for

Fr. Stephen Pullin, Lionel & Beth, Natalie, Anne and Maureen Hazlewood, Joel, Merv & Joan Singh, Ann Jones
Will & Marion, Ilaria, Tammy Fanelli, Noel & Ann Groth

Please join us for this different service and invite a family with young children to come along with you!

MARKET DAY SATURDAY 17TH OCTOBER

We are in urgent need of men who can help set up on the Friday at 1pm and to pack up again on Saturday at 12.30pm. Please prayerfully consider this need. The Market Day is a wonderful outreach for our church to the community as we as assisting in our financial status. By Saturday lunch time everyone is very tired and your help to put things away would be greatly appreciated.

News from Fr Brian and Margaret Gibbs

Packing is almost completed and this week it was confirmed that uplift will take place on 17/18/19 October by a Tasmanian removalist. Unfortunately the only berth for that week remaining on the Spirit of Tasmania was Friday 23 October which means we will arrive in Devonport on Saturday morning after an easy trip down to Melbourne with a few detours to be with family.

Brian joins me in thanking everyone for their kind wishes and for staying in touch during this tedious time of packing.

With our love to you all

Margaret and Brian
