A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy

Chapter 30: Verses 15-20

See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 1

Blessed are they who have not walked in the counsel of the ungodly:
nor followed the way of sinners, nor taken their seat amongst the scornful.

But their delight is in the law of the Lord:
and on that law will they ponder day and night.

They are like trees planted beside streams of water:
that yield their fruit in due season.

Their leaves also shall not wither:
and look, whatever they do, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them:
they are like the chaff which the wind scatters.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand up at the judgement:
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord cares for the way of the righteous:
but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

A Reading from the letter of Paul to Philemon verses 1-25.

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love—and

I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever, no longer as a slave but as more than a slave, a beloved brother—especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

One thing more—prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you.

Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you, and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow-workers.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St Luke, Chapter 14; verses 25-35

Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, 'Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

'Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; they throw it away. Let anyone with ears to hear listen!'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

'WHISPERS OF LOVE' MEDITATION GROUP

Reflection

Psalm 116:9 says: 'I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.' By becoming silent in this 'wordless and image-less prayer' we deepen our awareness of God's presence in our lives and we acknowledge our complete dependence on him. It was in the silence of the desert that God spoke to Moses and it is in the depths of our own silence that God speaks his prayer within us.

As John Main said, it is not so much 'my prayer' that matters as the prayer of Jesus into which we are led.

Prayerfully Revd. Ann

Please pray for

Carole Babington, Joel, Robert Vallance,

We prayerfully remember Wendy Hill & Todd Collinson

Prayer List

Each month we start a fresh page in our prayer list book which is located on the table outside the church. At this time we will also start a fresh list in the pew bulletin. If you wish yourself or someone you would like us to pray for please enter their name on the fresh page each month

Thank you, Bev Broadley

BCA BOXES.

prior to the service at 10.30am.

Our speaker will tell us about 'Kairos Outside for Women'

Please speak to Irene Neville if you wish to go.

KAIROS OUTSIDE FOR WOMEN (KOW)

It is often said by those in prison "We do the crime, but the family does the time". Often the families, especially the women, are the forgotten victims of someone else's crime. This is why Kairos Outside for Women reaches out to the family and friends of inmates, saying "You are not alone".

The speaker at the Anglican Women's Spring Rally will tell you more. Don't forget to put your name on the sign up sheet on the board.

Friday 9th September at Lakes Anglican Church

TRINITY BAND & SINGERS

This wonderful group are going to take a well earned break until the end of October. Some folk are going on holidays and some are moving. We wish you a good rest and want to thank you for your wonderful contribution over the past years to our music.

We look forward to having you back with us at the end of October.
