ARE IN MEMORY OF VAL KISSACK

HOLY BAPTISM

We warmly welcome Justin and Jenna Baker who bring their little girl Thea Elizabeth, to be baptised at 11am today. Welcome also to the Godparents, Family members and friends as they celebrate this new beginning on their lives.

THE OLD TESTAMENT TRINITY

The Book of Genesis tells the story of Abraham being visited by three angelic beings as he sat under the oak of Mamre. This has been seen as a theophany or manifestation of God the Holy Trinity. Andrei Rublev, a famous Russian monk and iconographer of the fifteenth century, created a simple and beautiful visual portrayal of this event. It is not a realist or historical portrait but an icon containing symbolism.

The three angelic visitors have identical faces and are gender neutral. Their heads are tilted toward each other, reflecting their mutual affection and adoration. Above the figure on the left is a building, symbolizing the Church and the worship of God. Above the one in the middle is the Oak of Mamre mentioned in the Genesis account but also symbolic of Christ's crucifixion. Above the figure on the right is a mountain, symbolic of the spiritual journey (many biblical encounters with God took place on a mountain) or spiritual ascent toward salvation.

On the table is a dish containing the meat Abraham prepared for his guests. It rests at the focus of the circular arrangement as a symbol of the Holy Eucharist, the continuing renewal of the covenant between God and humanity. On the front of the table is a small, rectangular hole, symbolizing the "narrow door" to salvation (Luke 13:24).

Prayer of the Day

O blessed Trinity,
in whom we know the Maker of all things, seen and unseen,
the Saviour of all, both near and far:
by your Spirit enable us so to worship your divine majesty,
that with all the company of heaven
we may magnify your glorious name, saying,
Holy, holy, holy, Glory to you, O lord most high. Amen.

A reading from the book of Isaiah Chapter 6: verses 1 - 8.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.'

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!'

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.'

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 29.

Ascribe to the Lord, you powers of heaven:
ascribe to the Lord glory and might.

Ascribe to the Lord the honour due to his name:
O worship the Lord in the beauty of his holiness.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters:
the God of glory thunders,
the Lord upon the great waters.

The voice of the Lord is mighty in operation:
the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar-trees:
the Lord breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

He makes them skip like a calf:
Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.

The voice of the Lord divides the lightning-flash:
the voice of the Lord whirls the sands of the desert,
the Lord whirls the desert of Kadesh.

The voice of the Lord rends the terebinth trees,
and strips bare the forests:
in his temple all cry 'Glory.'

The Lord sits enthroned above the water-flood:
the Lord sits enthroned as a king for ever.

The Lord will give strength to his people:
the Lord will give to his people the blessing of peace.

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans
Chapter 8: verses 12-17.

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh— for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Hear the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John, chapter 3, verses 1-17.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.' Jesus answered him, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, "You must be born from above." The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can these things be?' Jesus answered him, 'Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?

'Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

'Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus

MEDITATION 'WHISPERS OF LOVE'

Monday 10.00am

Reflection

Meditation is the missing contemplative dimension fo much Christian life today. It does not exclude other types of prayer and indeed deepens one's reverence for the sacraments and one's reading of the scripture.
