

The Anglican Diocese of Newcastle
The Parish of Terrigal

Welcome to worship at Holy Trinity
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
12th JUNE, 2016

7.30am – Sung Eucharist - Presiding & preaching – Fr Mark

9.30am - Holy Eucharist - Presiding & preaching – Fr Mark

11.30am - Holy Baptism - Iluka Bennett

[All hymns are from Together in Song unless otherwise specified.]

We welcome Iluka Bennett into the Body of Christ through Holy Baptism, and parents Bradley & Brooke, this morning at 11.30am. Welcome to families and friends who celebrate with them today.

Prayer and anointing for healing are available at each Eucharist. If you would like prayer and anointing, please move in front of the step at the left side of the altar after receiving communion and a priest will come and minister to you.

A Reading from the second book of Samuel Chapter 11, v26 to Chapter 12, v10, 13-15

When the wife of Uriah heard that her husband was dead, she made lamentation for him. When the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son.

But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD, and the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, 'There were two men in a certain city, one rich and the other poor. The rich man had very many flocks and herds; but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. He brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his meagre fare, and drink from his cup, and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him. Now there came a traveller to the rich man, and he was loath to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb, and prepared that for the guest who had come to him.' Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. He said to Nathan, 'As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die; he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.'

Nathan said to David, 'You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you from the hand of Saul; I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added as much more. Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, for you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife. David said to Nathan, 'I have sinned against the LORD.' Nathan said to David, 'Now the LORD has put away your sin; you shall not die. Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD, the child that is born to you shall die.' Then Nathan went to his house.

The LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became very ill.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm: 32

Blessed are those whose sin is forgiven:
whose iniquity is put away.

Blessed are those to whom the Lord imputes no blame:
and in whose spirit there is no guile.

For whilst I held my tongue:

my bones wasted away with my daily complaining.

Your hand was heavy upon me day and night:
and my moisture was dried up like a drought in summer.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you:

and my iniquity I did not hide;

I said 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord':
and so you forgave the wickedness of my sin.

For this cause shall everyone that is faithful

make their prayer to you in the day of trouble:

and in the time of the great water-flood,
it shall not come near them.

You are a place to hide me in,

you will preserve me from trouble:

you will surround me with deliverance on every side.

'I will instruct you, and direct you in the way that you should go:

I will fasten my eye upon you, and give you counsel.

'Be not like horse or mule, that have no understanding: whose forward course must be curbed with bit and bridle.'

Great tribulations remain for the ungodly:
but whoever puts their trust in the Lord,
mercy embraces them on every side.

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, and be glad:
and shout for joy, all you that are true of heart.

A Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Galatians Chapter 2. 15-21

We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners; yet we know that a person is justified not by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. And we have come to believe in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by doing the works of the law, because no one will be justified by the works of the law. But if, in our effort to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have been found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! But if I build up again the very things that I once tore down, then I demonstrate that I am a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not nullify the grace of God; for if justification comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Alleluia. Alleluia.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
the one who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, Chapter 7: verses 36 - Chapter 8.3.

One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table. And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, 'If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him—that she is a sinner.' Jesus spoke up and said to him, 'Simon, I have something to say to you.' 'Teacher,' he replied, 'speak.' 'A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he cancelled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?' Simon answered, 'I suppose the one for whom he cancelled the greater debt.' And Jesus said to him, 'You have judged rightly.' Then turning towards the woman, he said to Simon, 'Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.' Then he said to her, 'Your sins are forgiven.' But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, 'Who is this who even forgives sins?’ And he said to the woman, ‘Your faith has saved you; go in peace.’

Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him, as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Herod’s steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.

Reflection

A window on our spiritual lives

Even though our emotional and spiritual lives are distinct, they do influence one another profoundly. Our feelings often give us a window on our spiritual journeys. When we cannot let go of jealousy, we may wonder if we are in touch with the Spirit in us that cries out "Abba". When we feel very peaceful and "centered", we may come to realise that this is a sign of our deep awareness of our belovedness. Likewise our prayer lives, lived as faithful response to the presence of the Spirit within us, may open a window on our emotions, feelings and passions and give us some indication of how to put them in the service of our long journey into the heart of God.

Prayerfully Reverend Ann
